

Attention Research Investigators – The Annual Human Subject Protection Conference has a new format & content specifically for you!

21st Annual Human Subject Protection Conference September 5, 2019 | Northern KY Convention Ctr.

This year's conference will address issues of critical importance to human subject protections.

Morning Content (NEW THIS YEAR! Investigator-focused, half-day):

- Comparative Effectiveness Research, Scott Kim, MD, PhD; National Institutes of Health
- Research Involving Biorepositories, Pearl O'Rourke, MD; Partners Healthcare
- Big Data in Research, Mary Gray, PhD; Microsoft Research / Indiana University / Harvard University

Additional Content for Full-Day Attendees:

- IRB Chair panel discussion during the provided lunch
- Participant Perspective, T.J. Sharpe; Cancer Survivor
- Research Compliance, Nichelle Cobb, PhD; University of Wisconsin-Madison
- Research Team Management, Jennifer Goldfarb, MSN, RN, CCRP; ACI Clinical

Details and Registration:

- Conference brochure contains details on talks, CME credits, pricing: Conference Brochure
- Registration: www.cincinnatichildrens.org/cme
Click the "Continuing Education Portal" link on the right. Seating is limited; please register early.

This event is co-sponsored by Advarra, Cincinnati Children's, Northern Kentucky University, the University of Cincinnati, the Cincinnati Center for Clinical and Translational Science and Training \(CCTST\), the University of Kentucky Office of Research Integrity and the UK Center for Clinical and Translational Science.

Questions? Email ORCRAeducation@cchmc.org, or call 513.761.4100 and reference the Human Subject Protection Conference.

